SOLUTION : SCRABBLE CONTEST No. 14

Six people managed to solve all 20 anagrams. A couple of the clues were misleading, and there was much ingenuity shown in the answers, so I have decided to allow alternatives for 3 of the anagrams. Complete solutions were received from Alveen Seon, Andree Prentice, Lyn Toka, Glennis Hale, Rhoda Cashman and John Foster. Also, highly commended to Allie Quinn with 19 correct. A draw was held and the winner is Rhoda Cashman from the Rodney Scrabble Club - congratulations! Here are the answers

SCRABBLE CONTEST No 15

Unless otherwise specified the dictionaries used as reference are Chambers English Dictionary (1988 Edition), and the Official Scrabble Players Dictionary.

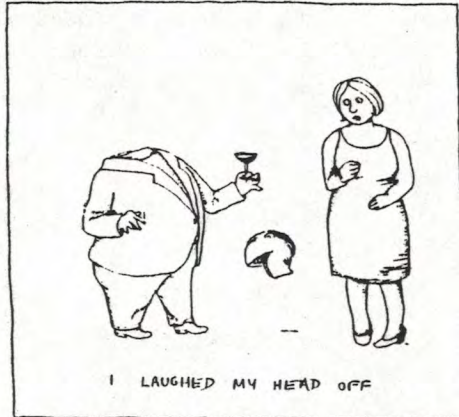

The closing date is November 19th, 1989, and the winner will receive a book prize - good luck!

Entries to be sent to Jeff Grant, Waipatu Settlement Rd, R.D.2 Hastings.

Does the word GHOTI look familiar? You won't find it in OSPD or Chambers, or in fact any dictionary. There are several places in India bearing this name, so it does exist. However, the GHOTI most people know was coined many years ago to demonstrate the vagaries of English. The 'word' is actually pronounced FISH - GH as in ROUGH, O as in WOMEN, and TI as in ACTION. There are many words where TI is pronounced like SH, but can you think of 3 common, unrelated words where SC is pronounced like SH? Terms containing SCH, like SCHNAPPS, don't count. This puzzle was devised by Cecily Crampton of the Hastings Club.

TOKOROA ANNUAL PRIZEGIVING

by KEVIN EDGELE

ALBERICO'S Licensed Restaurant was the venue for the Tokoroa Scrabble Club's 10th birthday celebrations on August 12th.

Although no major titles were gained by the Timberlands club, some highlights of the year are worth mentioning. The club's annual tournament in February had the Bridge Club bulging at the seams with a maximum entry of sixty players. Another highlight in the club's decade year was the staging of this year's Masters Tournament.

The club championships for the Betty Price Salver were the closest for many years. After the round robin format was complete it was founder member, Lesley Edgeler who prevailed on a countback from Florence Veldhuizen. National champion, Jeff Grant was a guest at the dinner and presented the following prizes to the various winners.
